

Playground Battle

The Feelers

You don't owe me anything,
You don't owe me anything
Anything at all I would have Given it to you
I don't owe you anything,
I don't owe you anything,
Everything I had I gave it to you

It's just a playground battle,
That I'm going to get myself into,
It's just a playground battle,
That I'm going to get myself into

I don't love you anymore,
'Cause I don't know you anymore
Everything you were,
Now means nothing at all

You take me higher than heaven,
You take me deeper into hell
You take me high than heaven,
You take me deeper into hell
And if you had fore warned me
Then I would not have come
I said if you had fore warned me
Then I would not have come
