

Silent Sorrow

The Flower Kings

I wish that I could see
The state of things that you can do
Life would be nicer to me
Like the way life is treating you
Information, revelation, always seems to come my way
Now I'm stuck in this situation
It's getting clearer every day

Doors of these dark rooms open wide
I cannot stop them even if I try
No need for this information
Someone else have to pay the price

I'll drown in a silent sorrow
I've seen all too much, too soon
I'm lost in a silent sorrow
Wrapped up in a dark cocoon

I've prayed that I would have changed
Close my ears & shut my eyes
Life wouldn't be so strange
Bullet hit between the eyes

Complicated, escalated
Visions always make my day
Life happened while I waited
For the truth to come my way

Doors of these dark rooms open wide
I cannot stop them even if I try
No need for this information
Someone else have to pay the price

I'll drown in a silent sorrow
I've seen all too much...
