The Four Seasons

Danger

Danger

Danger

With each passing stranger

Why do you always make me want you so

When you're still meeting him where lights are low?

You vowed your love to me

But I know there could be danger

In each passing stranger

What happened to the girl I used to know?

The one girl that I loved and trusted so?

Now when you walk with me

Each guy we pass could be danger

Danger

Everyone knows (Everyone knows)

It's him you chose

When are you gonna tell me?

I can see (I can see)

Tears for me

Cause me you were just teasin'

His lips you were pleasing

Oh ahhhh

Oh ahhhh

You vowed your love to me

But I know there could be danger

Danger

You vowed your love to me

But I know there could be danger

Danger

You vowed your love to me

But I know there could be danger

Danger
