

Wonder What You'll Be

The Four Seasons

Wonder what you'll be
Wonder what you'll see
Will somebody else mean more to you than me
You may be mine today
But there will come a time when you will go your way
You'll go away

When you see the light
When you see the lights
Will the grown-up world begin to change your eyes
And as the years go by
How many times will you mistake the truth for lies
How much will you cry

I'll make the most of every day
I'll hold you in my arms
And keep you by my side
'Till you must go away

Wonder what you'll find
Wonder where you'll go
Will I ever teach you everything I know
And when I set you free
Then will you wonder 'bout your children just like me
What will they be

(Wonder what you'll be)
(Wonder what you'll be)
