Featuring: The Go! Team

go go
a-go go
go go go start the day for something start the day at seven ten waking for a living and the pattern starts again its avenue b, change at tennessee before the city begins to swell at seven two four on the second floor is where the telephone has my bell echo echo echo down the wire i can see
i can see
nothing else to be
i can see
nothing else to be - eee only seven letters only seven hours to go i begin to wonder now if there's still a place below i file it away, handing in the tray so i can only be who i am eleven fifteen, tapping the machine until the calender starts to jam
i can see
i can see
oh talking about oh walking about we'll go back to the sea and find what i'm about oh
but i'll never be someone again
cos it happens all over again tomorrow
