

Closed for the Season

The Hives

Called you up a few weeks ago thought I was going nowhere I thought that I had lost my mind and that I was sinking lower I want to have all the things that I have never had and your about to tell me how or I'll hurt you pretty bad.
So I'll ask you once I'll ask you twice and if you still can't give a reason I'll hang a blue sign over your left eye saying

Called you up a few days ago cause I still had gotten nowhere Although I had found a place to go and I was about to go there But I want to be seated cause I had enough of walking
So you better start giving me answers before my right hand does the talking Called you up not long ago cause I still had gotten nowhere And I was pretty sure now that I had sunken lower All my patience gone and I was gettin pissed I want to own the world and you to taste my fist.
