

There's one kiss I will not forget
Just one lover I do not regret
It's you and it's always been you

So can I beg you for a second chance
Or are you taken by another man
It's you and it's always been you

And if I hear that you'll be in Chicago
Then I'll take the first flight tomorrow
Confess all the feelings that I've been concealing for years
And if you happen to be in the city
Then meet me on top of the highest building
Darling what else can I lose I already lost you

You always find me when I'm sleeping
Somehow I always know I'm dreaming of you
And it's always been you

'Cause nothing compares to the real thing
No one else can complete me but you
And it's always been you

And if I hear that you'll be in Chicago
Then I'll take the first flight tomorrow
Confess all the feelings that I've been concealing for years
And if you happen to be in the city
Then meet me on top of the highest building
Darling what else can I lose I already lost you

There've been others to take your place
Still your memory I cannot erase
All the thousands of mistakes I've made
None worse than letting you walk away

And if I hear that you'll be in Chicago
Then I'll take the first flight tomorrow
Confess all the feelings that I've been concealing for years
And if you happen to be in the city
Then meet me on top of the highest building
Darling what else can I lose I already lost you

There's one kiss I will not forget
Just one lover I do not regret
It's you and it's always been you
