

Keeper of Your Heart

The Icarus Account

She thinks that he could be
A better man, a better man.
But she doesn't always see
That he's trying the best that he can
And he gave up on his dreams
Wife and kids and family
Isn't that what love asks for?
No, no, no
This love just asked him for more

Love has its seasons and reasons for leaving.
Love take its chances and leaves answers,
But we don't understand.
But I'll be the keeper of your heart
So even when love goes,
you'll know, you'll know.
That I will walk with you along this road.

He thinks that she could be,
A better wife, a better wife.
But he doesn't always see
Every single sacrifice
She gave herself willingly.
'Cause that's exactly what he needs
And isn't that what love asks for?
No, no, no,
This love just asked her for more.

Love has its seasons and reasons for leaving.
Love take its chances and leaves answers
That we don't understand.
I'll be the keeper of your heart
So even when love goes,
You'll know, you'll know.
That I will walk with you along this road.

And love will take, and take and take and take
Until you give more.
And hearts will break, and break and break and break until we restore.

So ain't that what love asks for?
This love, it always gives more.
