

Postcards

The Icarus Account

Hope was written in a note
Two season ago back when I met you
When I met you in the fall
The postcard on the wall
Reads worn out and small
"I won't forget you, I won't forget you when I go"
But it never works out like you plan

I just wanna find you
So I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from where you are
This postcard's to remind you
That I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from where you are

Now it's May
I wish that you had stayed
For more than just a day or two I'd tell you
All the things I never got to like the time
We drove all through the night
Just talking about life
I should've kissed you
I should've kissed you in the car
But it never works out like you plan

Well I just wanna find you
So I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from where you are
This postcard's to remind you
That I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from where you are

And it never worked out like a plan
'Cause you never reached out your hand
To find me
To find me at all
And you left a postcard on the wall
With no return address at all
To find you
I've tried to find you since the fall
So here's a postcard for your wall

I just wanna find you
So I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away
This postcard's to remind you
That I can take the miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from you
The miles and miles away from where you are
