

Beautiful Change

The Innocence Mission

Oh I'm going to find some peace of mind
At any time I could change, any day
A beautiful change
Some low sinking clouds become reindeer
While I'm standing here at the door
Looking for a beautiful change

The snow is here. The light is bright

Flower forth, and soon, branch of Easter
I want to be here when he needs me
He will see a beautiful change
Oh and he wades into the yard
Nothing has been what I'd guessed so far
Unforeseen, this most sweet, beautiful change
