

Up For Sale

The (International) Noise Conspiracy

40 days and 40 nights since I last got in a fight
What have we done? Money's on the lookout for number 1
40 days and 40 nights since I last got in a fight
What have we done? Money's on the lookout for number 1
40 nights and 40 days that's how long I'm gonna stay
What have become of the children that this culture spawned?

Another word for the lack of precision
Another word that fits me and you

We are up for sale, everything that we know is up for sale

40 days and 40 nights since I last saw some light
What have we done? Sacrificed our kids and loved ones 40 nights and 40 days is this the price we are gonna pay?
What have we become? Marked up and price-tagged everyone

Another word for the lack of precision
Another word that fits me and you

We are up for sale, everything that we know is up for sale

Another dream for the lack of precision

We are up for sale, everything that we know is up for sale
