Trees

The John Butler Trio

They're cutting down all the trees Can someone stop them please Thank God for people in this world Who dedicate their lives to these Thank God for people in this world Who dedicate their lives to trees

Because...

Don't they know if they chop them down There won't be anything to see Don't they know if they chop them down There won't be anything to breathe Don't they know if they chop them down It's only desert that they leave Don't they know anything? NO

And it's all for the money
That love for money
Yes it's sweeter than honey
That love for money..and
Don't care about the future
Don't care about the past
You just chop those trees down
While the money it still lasts..
There's a war going on yeah
And it ain't in the middle east
It's happening in our own damn country
They're chopping down all the trees

Don't they know if they chop them down There won't be anything to see Don't they know if they chop them down There won't be anything to breathe Don't they know if they chop them down It's only desert that they leave Don't they know anything? NO

Hippie, ferel, protestors

Call them what you may

But if they weren't here right now

There wouldn't be a tree standing today

Hippie, ferel, protestors
