

Lightning Fields

The Killers

Last night I saw you dressed in white
Nothing around you
You were standing in the lightning field of love
You were waiting for the lightning to come
And I didn't want to wake up
I just wanted to run my fastest
And stand beside you

I just wanted to run my fastest and stand beside you
In the lightning field of love
I didn't want to wake up

I just wanted to run my fastest
And stand beside you in the lightning field
Press your face to mine
Name and raise again
Take the car out for a drive

Run my fastest and stand beside you
In the lightning field of love
Name and raise again
Press your face to mine
Run my fastest and name and raise again
Hold your hand again
Speak your name again
Over heels again
Tell you everything

Late at night I lie in bed
And think about things left unsaid
And all the things that I'd do different
If I just had the chance

Don't beat yourself up, you laid good ground
Look at 'em walk from scratch to sundown
You put the work in and then some Where is this all coming from?

There's no end to love
There's no end to truth
There's no end to me
There's no end to you

I just wanted to run my fastest
And stand beside you in the lightning field of love
Press your face to mine
Name and raise again
Take the car out for a drive
(Take me with you to the other side)
Run my fastest and stand beside you
In the lightning field of love
Name and raise again
Press your face to mine
Run my fastest and name and raise again
Give my name again
Speak your name again
Bring myself to just

Tell you everything
Everything
