

Good Enough

The Knack

How long before you come around
How long before we tumble down
How much are you gonna give
Your touch will teach me how to live
Hidden places secret phases of the moon
Your love chases and erases the gloom

That's good enough good enough for me
That's good enough good enough for me
You shouldn't have given away the key
That's good enough good enough for me

How far are we gonna go
How long before you let me know
How deep will we sink in sin
To keep our love alive within
Secret places where your taste is all I know
Your embrace is etching traces on my soul

That's good enough good enough for me
That's good enough good enough for me
You shouldn't have given it up for free
That's good enough good enough for me

Shine so bright you glow
Wind it tight and let it go

How sad that you want so much
How bad do you want my touch
How good do I gotta be
You should have given it up to me
Secret places where your taste is all I know
Your embrace is etching traces on my soul

That's good enough good enough for me
You shouldn't have given away the key

Good enough good enough

Good enough good enough
