

Tonight

The Letter Black

Another night I'm all alone
I wonder why it's always this way
I shut myself inside my room
I cry non-stop through the night

And I wonder why
Tonight may be my last
If you're not here I won't make hit though
Tonight please get here fast
No one but you can save me this time tonight

Another day has come and gone
Still no one asks if I'm okay
So I roll up my sleeves to expose my scars
I look around and still I see no one cares

I've had enough
So I grab my gun
I say to myself This time I'll make sure I die
I go to the mirror for one last look
But the man I used to see is no longer there
I start to cry
I put the gun to my head
I hear someone come into the room
I look and see Jesus standing there
With tears in my eyes I say tonight
