God Wants Us All to Work in Factories

The Locust

Dying can be that easy Getting born again can be somewhat hard A snake eating its own tail Riding the new wave of new Wading in the sentimental sperm of now Don't wait for God to judge you because we can do that

The words you sing are wrong since all masters are taught exact ly what masters are to know

The chorus sings: "I'm unimpressed" The one who is only God cannot be thee top dog Employer, employ me some stale dead dog fuck all fuck bag Hey! Heave! Ho!

Well, in case you did miss the memo Rest in peace neoclassical absurdity Let's polish turds Then eat them Yum, yum
