

REPRISE

The Lumineers

Callin' on your neighborhood
Tell me who to like
Everyone's a friend
Every now and then
Tell me who to like

I'm headed for the lights
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
Baby, tonight

Painted like a parasite
He's too young to die
Everyone's a friend
Every now and then
Way too young to die

I'm headed for the lights
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
I'm headed for the lights
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight

Waitin' on the sun
I'm waitin' on the sun
I'm waitin' on the sun, tonight

Waitin' on the sun
I'm waitin' on the sun
I'm waitin' on the sun, tonight

I'm headed for the lights
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
I'm headed for the lights (He's headed for the lights)
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
I'm headed for the lights (He's headed for the lights)
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
I'm headed for the lights (He's headed for the lights)
I'm headed for the brightside, baby, tonight
