

Too Stubborn

The Marshall Tucker Band

You said you loved me, Don't know why I thought you'd be,
the kind of woman, that'd leave a man in misery.
I was wrong all along,
but too stubborn a man to change my mind.

I couldn't believe,
Lord I lost you,
When I knew you loved me all the time.
I was wrong all along,
but too stubborn a man to change my mind.

Should of loved you while I had the chance,
But I had a feelin' inside.
'bout all the times, I really loved you, but too hardheaded to change my mind
