

You Should Know

The Marvelettes

You called me today
You asked if I missed you, oh yes I have
If I still long to hold you (Hold you) and kiss you (Kiss you)
The way I cry when you left me by myself

Oh, you should know, you should know

You wanted to know
If nights have been so lonely, oh yes they have
If I still needed and loved you only
'Cause your love is real, it's plain how I feel

Oh, you should know, you should know
Oh, oh, oh

Don't you realise that true love never dies
Haven't I proved that to you
That my love is true
Oh, oh, oh, oh

Oh, oh-oh oh
Oh, oh, oh

Don't you realise that true love never dies
Haven't I proved that to you
That my love is true
Oh, oh, oh

You should know, you should know
You should know that I miss you
Oh, you should know how I love you
