

Me Without You

The Monkees

I wonder just how long it would be
Me without you, you without me
We had a fight last night about something or other
But it can't be too important if we love one another
True love always seems to take a little bit longer
But every time we break up, we make up a little bit stronger
I wonder just how long it would be
Me without you, you without me
Let me tell you know
I wonder just how long it would be
Me without you, you without me o
Me without you, you without me
Me without you, you without me
Me without you, you without me'