"The circus is coming to town." it said on the poster.

"Get your tickets now, before it's too late."

A dancing bear and a circus clown it's so funny.

I can't wait to see everything there.

I feel like I'm already there.

I must see her fly through the air.

Horse running 'round and 'round in a circle.

I can't wait to see everything there.

I wonder if it's just like they say on the poster.

If it is I know I will be there.

I feel like I'm already there.

I must see her fly through the air.

I feel like I'm already there.

I must see her fly through the air.

I must see her fly through the air....
