

Mike's Number One

The Moody Blues

I want to tell you something
You might like to know
There's gonna be a happening
Do you know? Do you know?

Listen all you people
Reaping what you sow
There's gonna be a happening
Will you go? Will you go?

We've all started something
And it's begun to show
We're gonna see the glory
And we'll know, and we'll glow

Now isn't the time
We've got to make up all our minds
To open our eyes, tell no more lies
All the world is waiting for a sunrise
All the world is waiting for a sunrise

I want to tell you something

You might like to know
There's gonna be a happening
Do you know? Do you know?

Listen all you people
Reaping what you sow
There's gonna be a happening
Will you go? Will you go?

We've all started something
And it's begun to show
We're gonna see the glory
And we'll know

We've all started something
And it's begun to show
We're gonna see the glory
And we'll know
