

Slings And Arrows

The Moody Blues

Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

No chance for a second chance
When the arrows start to fly
No way is there an easy way
To say goodbye
No dream is ever lost
If you never cease to try
Never thought you could walk away
From my side
I just can't hide from
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Life is ever changing
Nothing stays the same
Nothing in this whole wide world
Can turn us back again
'Cause where we're standing now
Is the point of no return
Looking back on a world
That's got to learn
You just can't hide from
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows

Love is the shield
When you're fighting
With your back to the wall
And if you turn around and walk away
You're never gonna lose
'Cause love conquers all

No chance for a second chance
When the arrows start to fly
No way is there an easy way
To say goodbye (goodbye, goodbye)
No dream is ever lost
If you never cease to try
Never thought you would walk away
From my side
I just can't hide from
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
Slings and arrows, slings and arrows
