

Sorry

The Moody Blues

Just look at me now
Because I'm tired of yelling
Look at me now
It's only me I'm selling
I'm not willing to trade
My life to make the sale
You turn me around
You're puttin' me down
Look at me now

I'm hanging out my heart to dry
For the last time
I'll tell you the reason why
It's for the last time

Laid back uptown turnaround people lie
Laid back uptown turnaround people wear disguises
"Sorry" a word they only use too late
"Sorry" is a word
that only ever means forgive my yesterdays

Laid-back uptown turnaround people lie
Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises
And "sorry", that's a word they can only use too late
"Sorry" is a word
that only ever means forgive my yesterdays
Sorry..

Here I am, loving you
You're laying there so quietly
I can feel your breath upon my skin
Afterglow came suddenly
With you it always did

I'm hanging out my heart to dry [Look at me now]
For the last time
I'll tell you the reason why [Look at me now]
It's for the last time
Laid-back uptown turnaround people lie
[Look at me now]
Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises

They say "Sorry"
That's a word they only use too late
"Sorry" is a word that only ever means
Forgive my yesterdays

Uptown people lie
Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises
They say "Sorry"
That's a word they only use too late
"Sorry" is a word that only ever means forgive...
Sorry
