

Look at Me

The Motels

Do you see me as I stand here
Can you hear me when I speak?
I was born unknown and shapeless
Meant to live transparently
Do I have no form or function
Am I left to live outside?
Dreaming of attentions
That will always be denied

Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look you'll see
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you touch I'll feel
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look I'll know I'm real

Existing in the shadows
Separated from the light
Watching from the distance
That's held me all my life
Trapped by fear of falling
Failing in your eyes
Watch as you look past me
Never recognized

Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look you'll see
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you touch I'll feel
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look I'll know I'm real

Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look you'll see
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you touch I'll feel
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look I'll know I'm real

Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look you'll see
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you touch I'll feel
Look at me, look at me, look at me
If you look I'll know I'm real
