The Motors

Nothing on my mind
Nothing left to fight about
I just don't believe in one way situations

Look what you've done
It's nothing to shout about
Tell me what you see in this misinformation?

When they gave you a kiss and a ticket long ago
A scheme to idolize the dreams that paralyze you
Did they say that Jesus Christ himself was here?
But he's not, he's living in America
Working on his image as a life-sized sensation

Living in America, living in America
He's a sensation
Playing to the gallery
Giving you his body and soul

They say look what your life could be
They say I'll get you a guarantee
Step right up and buy a real live soul salvation

Look at you now
You're giving your life away
For a late night show romance with your imagination

When they gave you their number on a beat up magazine
A paperback gleam in their eyes, a backstreet dream to guide yo
