

You Feel let down, You Feel let down,
I can see things that matter to me
Are falling fast and breathing hard from neglect
And the fear that I might not come back.

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be
Monster- It's always been you hating me

I feel let down, I feel let down
What i saw in you, my eyes decieved me
I'm Choking on the ashes of my soul, or what's left
You sure did the trick
Well planned attack and brilliant disguise

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be
Monster- It's always been you hating me

Well planned attack, brilliant disguise,
But i want it back
Surrender felonies and sincere eyes

Scary- that i might not be who I'm supposed to be
Monster- It's always been you hating me
