

Perpetual Emotion

The Nylons

Emotion, perpetual emotion
Emotion, perpetual emotion

Emotion, perpetual emotion
Emotion, perpetual emotion

Oo, you got me going
I can't stop, I climb the highest mountain
To the top, I go through fire for you
Swim the ocean wild with this blind devotion

Mama say, mama say, there'll be days
You gonna meet someone and somehow
They are gonna take your heart and sail away
Set you in motion

Emotion, perpetual emotion
Emotion, perpetual emotion

Oo you do what you do, you do
Some kind of voodoo you
Call my name out low
And I come runnin' to you, you

Pull a string and set your puppet in motion
Love is the drug in your potion
So my love, I ask you to be kind
Though love is blind, my love, don't leave my love behind

These things you do, my love
You know they put me through
So please be true, my love
And I'll be true to you

I have lived and loved and I have learned that Love can be so hot that love can burn
You give your love and love is not returned
It's gonna fill you up with crazy emotion
