Your Chosen Life

The Only Ones

Who do you think you are? You can't get away with The kind of things you're saying

Must be something wrong with you Remember who you're talking to Nobody's ever treated me that way And escaped unharmed Escaped unharmed

The first thing you learn Is people Aren't always half They all could be

Go back to your chosen life
You shouldn't venture this far
I think your bluff lasted it now
He opens his mouth
And everybody falls to the floor

Don't think I'm complaining
I've got the feeling it's what I hunt
And if there's a sudden revulsion
To think my mouth touched your
Stinkin', filthy cunt
