

Don't Be Angry

The Organ

I have to sneak in and put on your clothes
You will know where I've been
But I need the protection
Oh what a strange and miraculous thing
Finally recognise what is driving me crazy

All that I want was here now it's gone
All that I want was here now it's gone
Don't be angry
I don't disagree
It is clear that I left
My clothes on the highway

And I'd like to know
If you ever told
You said if I could have once
Given your life some meaning

All that I want was here now it's gone
All that I want was here now it's gone
All that I want was here now it's gone

Don't be angry
I will die lonely
Don't be angry
I will die lonely
Don't be angry
I will die lonely
Don't argue
'Cause you will see
That I will die so very lonely
Don't be angry
Don't be angry
