

It's Alright

The Osmonds

Last night as I got home,
much to my surprise.
Alright, oh it's alright.
Looked up, honey, there it was right before my eyes.
Alright, oh it's alright.
Came to me like
like the lightning and thunder.
What it was I still I wonder what it was.
Some day just by chance you'll see what I'm tryin' to say.
Alright, oh it's alright.
Came to me like
like the lightning and thunder.
What it was I still I wonder what it was.
Some find, some will never see.
Others throw it away.
Alright, oh it's alright.
