

Dangerous

The Parlotones

Let's face the facts, you're addicted to her waist, it's the only thing that keeps you and you're already bored

You communicate pollution, wipe the filth out of your taste,
the corporate gods now own you, you're so bloody bored

Read it in the headlines
This is real life
It's dangerous

Deer in the headlights
Better meet the deadlines
It's dangerous

Has the government rewired your machinery inside?
Are you a pawn or a player in this game called modern life?

So you think you may have choices, but the corporate suits decide Say hello to your creator, the mould called modern life

Read it in the headlines
this is real life
it's dangerous

Deer in the headlights
it's dangerous

24 hours and 7 days,
50 000 fake smiles
50 000 fake hand shakes
