

Inside

The Parlotones

There's one hour left until the end of the world
What we gonna do? Might as well just to pass the time

I am forced to please myself
I am forced to please myself

Inside and outside I'm stil the same guy
Inside and outside I'm still gonna die
Inside and outside
Inside I'm scared but I just cannot lie

There's half an hour left and we're still not making love
You're down on bended knees, praying for forgiveness
So help me please

Inside and outside I'm stil the same guy
Inside and outside I'm still gonna die
Inside and outside
Inside I'm scared but I just cannot lie

There's ID seconds left and you've still got your panties on What a way, what a terrible way to die
