

Eyes Shut

The Partisans

She's so young and unsuspected
Oh that look in her eyes
When she cried I could almost describe
What she'd feel
So I say to her
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Cause you can't see me
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
When I could see that it was helpless
I try to break through the lies
I have been her only and greatest defense
So I say to her
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Cause you can't see me
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Sometimes I try to understand her
But nothing could ever disguise
All the hate and the history
Besides I need time to reflect
On what you've been saying
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Cause you can't see me
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
Cause you can't see me
Life's easy when your eyes are closed
