

Conquering The Throne Of The Cadaverous

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Tyranny comes from your God, fire will destroy you all
Ravenous, infamous, the time has come to deliver us
Cadaverous, murderous, the time has come to believe in us
Enslave your God, the writing is in the sky
Unmerciful beast, the writing is on the wall
Erase all your faith, you are doomed to burn alive
Feel the chains of death dragging you down
The writing is in the sky!
In my reign of fire, in the kingdom of the damned
Where sinners burn and heretics walk the land
Let thy words be known,
the words we lay upon you
Cursed forever, obey us!
We are The Chosen Ones, we are Divine
We're one with darkness, Opposers of Light
The Alpha, the Omega, the Black and the White
Blessed forever, destroy us!
The Alpha, the Omega, we are The Chosen Ones
We're one with darkness, destroy us!
We are The Chosen Ones, the Black and the White
We're one with darkness, destroy us, destroy us!
The writing is in the sky, the writing is on the wall
We are The Awakening, we are The Sickening
We are everything you thought were lies
Laugh in the face of your damn creator, he's useless
Lies is all he tells you, you're a puppet on a string
Listen to what I tell you, I am The Truth
Bow your head to me, I'm the Goddess of Doom

[Solo: Magnus Söderman]

Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
You will never be one of us - The Murderous
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
You must never be one of us - The Slaughteous
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
You will never be strong enough to murder us
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
You must never be one of us - The Ravenous
The night calls for my name,
I will follow Them below
Darkness is my only light, brings the blood inside
Lost in my solitude again, I feel nothing
I can't open my eyes

[Solo: Danny Tunker]

The writing is on the wall, the writing is in the sky
We are The Awakening, we are The Sickening
We are everything you thought were lies
Erase all your faith, you are doomed to burn alive
Feel the chains of death dragging you down
We're breaking their will and send them to hell
We're breaking their spirits and bid them farewell

Salvation at hand, kill at command!
Disgust and repulse me, we're taking the throne
Bringing it back to where it belongs
We're breaking your spirits and bid you farewell
We're breaking your will and send you to hell
Prepare yourself, the day is here, evil will rule
I am here, Child of The Beast, born in the mist
Raised to kill, I am here!
To hell!
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
Conquering the throne of the weak and cadaverous
You must never be one of us, The Ravenous
The night calls for my name,
I will follow Them below
The Ravenous, darkness is my only light
Brings the blood inside
