

Reign

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Sanctify the death of your God
Born, baptized, blasphemized
Purify His heaven above
Slaughtered, raped, dechristianized

I'm wearing the mark on the side of my head
I'm splitting the seas and I'll gather the dead
Becoming the trinity to the feared and unseen
This grand celebration of Judas
Destroy what is built
Turn their pride into guilt
The end of free will
With the blood we have spilled
Demons dressed in angel flesh
Followers of nothingness
Sacrificed

Helpless under the reign of your supreme powers
Left to die for a lie by legions of cowards
I could use some help but where is everybody when I need them?
Hidden underneath the fear of belief
Buried in the soil of traitors and thieves

Nowhere to run nowhere to hide
This is the time, I have to die
I welcome the pain as I say goodbye
One more day of their mourning and their prayers
Hear how I call on you to feast upon the wrath of man
See how I devour you to please the beast inside of me
Hear how I call on you to feast upon the wrath of woman and man
See how I devour you to please the beast inside us all

I will die tonight for eternal love
In the afterglow of eternal love

In my mourning heart there's no hope or joy
As my body burns upon this bloodstained soil
We thrust our swords
We thrust our swords through flesh and bone
Reconquering the holy throne
Within the flames of chaos, they will obey us
We shall reign forevermore

Halt, this time nobody will trespass
Halt, this time we no longer breathe
Halt, this time my body's your black mass
Halt, this time you no longer breathe

Sanctify the birth of your Father
Born, dead and sacrificed

Sanctify His fall from grace
Murdered, raped, dechristianized

Carry your dead to holy ground
Choirs of darkness, chants of our doom
Spiritual bliss, you will find none
The Devil is I, spirits unbound
Spirits unbound, spirits unbound

For me, the reward of Jehova's denial
Spoken by serpents, the truth will be told Mocking the cross, reclaiming what's ours
For you, the skin of Jehova's disciples
Raised by sheep, eaten by wolves
Worship me - Belial

Crush the image of their Lord and Saviour
God's perversion
Let darkness rise up from below
And hear it scream my name once and for all
The voice of darkness calls for me
My soul is drowning in the dark sea

I have died today for eternal shame
And I will die again by the sacred flame
We put our knives through flesh and bone

Soulraping the Stillborn Son
Inside the flames of chaos we will roam
And reign... and reign forevermore

Eternal love
He has banished me for all eternity
Eternal hatred
He must punish me for I refuse to see
Eternal love
In my mourning heart
there's no hope or joy
Eternal hatred
As my body burns upon this dead, cold soil

Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are inside of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are a part of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are inside of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are a part of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are inside of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are a part of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are inside of me
Your death is now inside of me
Your demons are a part of me
