

Starting Over

The Raspberries

Used to feel so very optimistic
Till she said goodbye
Never thought a love like ours could die
Told myself I'd never love another
All I want is friends
But when we met, I felt it all again

Though I am starting over under cloudy skies
I say hello to love I'm seeing through different eyes
And if I had a chance
To make one wish
And know it would come true
I'd start all over with you

Every evening, I would watch the sunset
End another day
Let the night time wash my blues away
Buried my romantic inclination
Deep inside of me
Till I fell for you immoderately

I remember all the good times
And the bad times spent together
Why remember all the old times
When the new times look
Much better
