

And Lovers Came

The Raveonettes

A pretty stare
The day is gone to sleep
A Summer's night
We have to down the streets
I'll take your love, girl

We catch the night
We ride a different ways
Strangers they
A girl can ever say
"Give me your time, boy"

In endless night
Not to hear me out
The summer comes
To take the love away
Give me your time, boy

You wanna stay?
You wanna stay?
You wanna stay?
You wanna stay?
You wanna stay?

One more life
It seems to give
Is bad and dead
Bad and dead

The strangers they
A girl can ever give
A broken heart
Presented like a gift
I'll skip this one, dear

And when we're clear
And love is gone to sleep
Whatever left stop
Between the streets
See me love, girl
