

Summer Ends

The Raveonettes

You said, you're gonna file for a heartbreak
You said, you're gonna file for a heartbreak
When you left you destroyed my life and my thrill
Your fun is soon over when
Summer ends
Summer ends

This old wave is gonna drag you down
To the black where you always end up
Summer ends and we are far apart now
When autumn comes I'm over you

You said you come a-running when I need you
I said go fuck yourself I don't believe you
You had it all now you're chasing ugly angels up in Heaven
Your fun is soon over when
Summer ends
Summer ends

And now I hear
A dead man talking
They come and go
Like cats in the night
Oh mirror mirror
On the wall
Who's the most evil
Of them all
Oh mirror mirror
On the wall
Who's the most cunning
Of them all
Remembrance of
Things passed
This damaged boy
Not meant to last
And now I see
You show no empathy
I hate your guts
Why don't you just die
Leave me alone
Fare thee well goodbye
