

Hello, Hello

The Rentals

Hello, hello, hello, hello
You know it's good to see you here again
To be back with my friends
Where the work's not hard
And the century is closing down
I'm not sure what we've got
We really don't need a lot
Hello, hello

I made a lot of mistakes
That bear a heavy, heavy weight that I'm ashamed of
And I need to get through to something new
Where I'm not alone
Where everybody knows you, everybody loves you
Everybody says this is your home

Hello, hello, hello, hello
You know it's good to see you here again
To be back with my friends
Where the work's not hard
And the century is closing down
I'm not sure what we've got
We really don't need a lot
Hello, hello

Keep coming back to forget
To forget about the things I've done
It's the one place nobody cares
I know where I can go
Where everybody knows you, everybody loves you
Everybody says this is your home

Hello, hello, hello, hello
You know it's good to see you here again
To be back with my friends
Where the work's not hard
And the century is closing down
I'm not sure what we've got
We really don't need a lot
Hello, hello

Trying to shake all responsibility
Repeating that it don't mean much to me
Staying out of my head all day
Don't want to go back
And don't want to have to face it all
All those disappointments that I've made
Hello

Don't let me go, hello, hello, hello
You know it's good to see you here again
To be back with my friends
Don't let me go, hello, hello, hello
You know I wanna stay here with my friends
Stay here 'til the end, don't let me go

Don't let me go, hello, hello

Don't let me go, hello

The century is closing down, the century is closing down

The century is closing down, the century is closing down

Hello
