

End of the World

The Riot

Come, we must fly
Oh, you and I
We'll find escape
At the edge of the world

I can sense a new age coming
The tired ground below is rumbling
Mother earth is cracking from the stress she's under
No matter how much we have tried
The little we do won't stem the tide
It's time to get out before madness takes over

Maybe we can't stop the forces that are now in play
But we can delay
Enjoy the time we have

Come, we must fly
Oh, you and I
We'll find escape
At the edge of the world
There, we will hide
Alone, you and I
Waiting as one
For the end of the world

Just like you, I want to hold on
To all the things that soon will be gone
My heart is hanging low from the sense of loss
Desperate times call us to act
Separate the wheat from the chaff
The salient things must rise and the rest be tossed

Maybe we can't stop the forces that are now in play
But we can delay
Enjoy the time we have

Come, we must fly
Oh, you and I
We'll find escape
At the edge of the world
There, we will hide
Alone, you and I
Waiting as one
For the end of the world

Maybe we can't stop the forces that are now in play
But we can delay
Live another day
We can hide away
Enjoy the time we have

Come, we must fly
Oh, you and I
We'll find escape
At the edge of the world
There, we will hide
Alone, you and I

Waiting as one
For the end of the world
