

Showdown

The Riot

Girl, I've known you for a long time,
So many times, you made me out the fool.
They say love is blind,
Babe, I'm too blind to see,
And now it's a showdown,
Between you and me.
Showdown,
I can't take it anymore.

Showdown,
Now I'm walking out the door.
I've done my time,
Now I've got better things to do.
Now it's a showdown,
Between me and you.
Now you've got me spinnin', round and round.
I can't tell which way I'm turning.
I've been the fool,
And you've been so cruel.
Now it's a showdown,
Between me and you.
Showdown,
I can't take it anymore.

Showdown,
Now I'm walking out the door.
I've done my time,
Now I've got better things to do.
Now it's a showdown,
Between me and you.
