

Waiting

The Rocket Summer

Some things I should have known to see coming.
And why is it such a burden?
And why can't I make it leave?
And it's funny if I don't forgive it will kill me,
so how can I skip the time I need to stop the remembering.
Cause I want to and I need to.

Waiting, waiting,
I'm trying to get out, to get out,
but I'm locked right in.
So take this, take this, away from me,
so I can live, so I can live.

We all get there, years go by we forget to care,
Cause years went by and there's more despair,
the cards are dealt and received.
And it builds up, wears me down it's monotonous,
my personality's colorless, becoming bland and asleep.
And I hate it that I'm stuck here wasting time.

Waiting, waiting,
I'm trying to get out, to get out,
but I'm locked right in.
So take this, take this, away from me,
so I can live, so I can live.

Waiting, waiting,
I'm trying to get out, to get out,
but I'm locked right in.
So take this, take this, away from me,
so I can live, so I can live,
so I can live, cause I need to live,
Cause I need to live.
