

Hot Summer Nights

The Script

Since we said hello, I knew you'd be leaving Remember you will always be the one I'll never forget (I'll never forget)
'Cause you're a sunset girl whose world is always dreamin'
And I'm a full moon man who's living with no regrets, no regrets
'Cause I held you in my hand (Yes)
You fell through them like sand (Yeah)
Until we meet again, my love

Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you, love
Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you love

I hate sayin' goodbye to those sweet summer vibes with you
I don't like sayin' goodbye to those hot summer nights with you

We're laying down on the hood of my car
So high thought that we could touch stars
We're so close, yeah we're so-so far away (So far away)
Week by week, day by day we'd spark up
And we'd walk, and we'd walk, yeah
We'd some drinks, then more drinks, we made love then we talk (Talk about)

Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you, love (I'll be waitin', waitin' for yo ur love)
Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you love (I'll be waitin', waitin' for you r love)

I hate sayin' goodbye to those sweet summer vibes with you (I'll be waitin', waitin' for your love)
I don't like sayin' goodbye to those hot summer nights with you (I'll be wai tin', waitin' for your love)

We had an earphone each, yeah, listenin' to hip-hop Saying your life's so much better in flip-flops Got my heart like a postcard, always wishin' you were here (Wishin' you were here)

Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you, love (I'll be waitin', waitin' for yo ur love)
Through the yes and the no's, and the highs and the lows
Through the good and the bad, when you smile when you're mad
I'll be here, I'll be waitin' for you love (I'll be waitin', waitin' for you r love)

I hate sayin' goodbye to those sweet summer vibes with you (I'll be waitin', waitin' for your love)
I don't like sayin' goodbye to those hot summer nights with you (I'll be wai tin', waitin' for your love)

Under sunsets and full moons

I'll be waiting here for you, my love (I'll be waitin', waitin' for you love
)
