Flower Lady And Her Assistant

The Seeds

There she is a'workin' her yard
The flower lady and her assistant
Lilacs and poppies, blood-red flowers
A'workin' so hard till the day she dies
The flower lady and her assistant
The flower lady and her assistant

A yellow print dress, she outgrows the rest CHORUS

A yellow print dress, she outgrows the rest Working so hard right back in her yard Lost in daydreams, forgotten by time The flower lady and her assistant She dances through life like a butterfly Working so hard till the day she dies The flower lady and her assistant

There she is a'platin' her yard
The flower lady and her assistant
Lilacs and poppies, blood-red flowers
Reaching, touching, touch the sky
A painted billboard that hides her yard
The flower lady and her assistant
The flower lady and her assistant

Just living in uncertainty
The flower lady and her assistant
Lilacs and poppies and blood
Red flowers forgotten and living
In uncertainty
The flower lady and her assistant
