Our Last Goodbye

The Stanley Brothers

Oh the nights are lonely here without you All I see is grief and pain For another's love you treasure All my hopes are now in vain

For I love you as no other Though you've gone far away Will you ever think my darling Of our last goodbye today

I often dream of you my darling You looked so sweet and smiled at me And though another's arms may hold you Those two blue eyes I long to see

Now if you ever need me darling Don't forget to drop a line My heart will be with you my darling Won't you think of me sometime
