

First Impressions

The Stylistics

First impressions are misleading
That's what they say
Sweet affections should grow slowly
And steady and deeper every day

And I may be reachin' for a star
I should take the time to know you better
Don't know who you really are
But here we are

Magic moments don't come easy
I could be wrong
But this feeling keeps on flowin'
And growin' and comin' on real strong

Though I don't know who you really are
Tonight I got to feel my arms around you
Maybe reaching for a star
But here we are

Got to go with first impression
First impressions can sometimes lead to love
