

Love Comes Easy

The Stylistics

Lucky me, lucky you
We're a lucky pair
Whenever we're together, together

Lady luck cast a spell
Magic fills the air
Whenever we're together, together

Fortune smiles the day we met
Twining our lives with golden thread
All lovers know reality, we follow clouds that fail to see
We're free in a world where there is no peace

We found a new belief
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

If it seems love has passed you by
Here's something you should try
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

Lucky me, lucky you
We are shining bright
We're so right together, together

Music plays everywhere
We're a melody, a harmony
Together, together

Fortune smiles the day we met
Twining our lives with golden thread
All lovers know reality, we follow clouds that fail to see
We're free in a world where there is no peace

We found a new belief
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

If it seems love has passed you by
Here's something you should try
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

In a world where there is no peace
We found a new belief
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

If it seems love has passed you by
Here's something you should try
Put your heart in your hand
And you'll find love comes easy

In a world where there is no peace
We found a new belief
Put your heart in your hand

And you'll find love comes easy.
