

Let Me Tell You Babe

The Troggs

Let me tell you, babe, you got me crazy
You got your head in those big white clouds by now
Let me tell you, babe, you got me crazy
You don't know, girl, what' life's all about.

Let me tell you, babe, you must be dreamin'
The world ain't spinnin' just for you alone
Let me tell you, babe, you must be dreamin'
'Cause it's rough, girl, out there on your own
And love that's worth your salt don't grow on trees
It won't show upon every breeze that blows
It beats me, honey, how your eyes don't see
They just don't see what's right in front of your nose.

Let me tell you, babe, you just ain't thinkin'
The grass ain't greener on that side of town
Let me tell you, babe, you know I need you
If you stay, girl, I won't let you down.

(Let me tell you, babe) if you stay, girl
(Let me tell you, babe) I won't let you down
(Let me tell you, babe) if you stay, girl
(Let me tell you, babe) I won't let you down
