

Tomorrow's Tears

The Undertones

Don't ruin another day
Don't pretend to hide yourself away
Turn on the light, open the door
Remember the times you've had before
You've already cried tomorrow's tears today

Shine, shine, shine it on
Shine, shine, shine it on

The sun is here to stay
Broken clouds will gently drift away
A destination in between
A little faith, a better scene
You've already cried tomorrow's tears today

Shine, shine, shine it on

Shine, shine, shine it on
Shine, shine, shine it on
Shine, shine, shine it on
Shine, shine, shine it on
